About this piece

Attributed to William Watt, in the style of E. W. Godwin. An Aesthetic Movement ebonised walnut cabinet with carved floral decoration throughout. The upper section has an open display area with a turned gallery and fine finials, above a central glazed cupboard flanked by open shelves. Below is a work area with a bevelled central mirror.

The lower section features a two-door cupboard with carved floral decoration on four boxwood panels, flanked by open shelves and turned galleries. The cabinet is raised on four slender turned legs.
