About this piece

By a British workshop, a cake stand in copper aligned to the Arts and Crafts movement (1880–1910), c.1910. The tall frame rises in flowing uprights to a heart finial, set with three circular plates. Each plate is repoussé with grape vines and leaves, the rolled rims and small collars holding them neatly to the column. Curled feet give a light footprint with good stability, suited to a dining room sideboard or tea table.
