

G. M. Ellwood for J. S. Henry. A firescreen in the manner of George Montague Ellwood

Ref: FSB SOLD 90

SOLD

| | |
|------------|---|
| MAKER | J. S. Henry |
| DESIGNER | George Montague Ellwood |
| YEAR | 1900 |
| MATERIALS | Wood, Paint |
| DIMENSIONS | H: 39 in (99.06 cm) W: 32 in (81.28 cm) |

About this piece

A firescreen in the manner of George Montague Ellwood probably for J.S.Henry with a painted snooker player chalking his cue, painted cue's flanking his sides and snooker balls to each corner with stylised floral fret work to the feet and with the motto 'When My Cue Comes Call Me' from Shakespears play 'A Midsummer Nights Dream'. Height 39", Width 32". Circa 1900.