About this piece

Attributed to Gillows of Lancaster

A rare Gothic Revival architect's folding desk. The top has opposing slides opening to reveal a compartment for storing drawing utensils, etc. The folding leather work area has three different working positions and folds down neatly when not in use. To one side, there is a cupboard; to the other side, a bank of five drawers, the upper drawer is a dummy.

Additional Measurements:

- Depth unfolded - 85cm/33.46" Inches
- Width top compartment open - 145cm/57.09" Inches
