About this piece

A Gothic Revival side table attributed to John Henry Chamberlain and made by Pluknett and Steevens who later became Collier and Pluknett. I have had them before with Collier and Pluknett labels. Collier and Pluknett were high end furniture makers who had premises in Warwick. They produced many exhibition pieces always of a superior quality. Coincidentally the young Ambrose Heal served his apprenticeship with them from 1890 to 1893 just before he started designing for Heals. Height 27", Width 24", Depth 24". Circa 1880.
