About this piece

Bookcase

In the style of A. W. N. Pugin, probably made by Gillows. A large cavernous, good quality Gothic Revival oak and burr oak bookcase.

The upper section features subtle carved floral details and Corinthian columns to each upper side. Each shelf has leaf style fretwork decoration which doubles as hinged dust covers to protect the spines of books.

The lower section breaks forward with a full-width open display or storage area and a central dog kennel below, flanked by two cupboards with beautiful figured burr oak. This bookcase breaks down into three sections.

The cornice is one piece, and the upper section separates from the lower section.
