About this piece

A Shapland and Petter oak bedroom pair with matching double bed. Although the bed is made from mahogany and was a completely different colour we have stripped and refinished it to the same colour as the wardrobe and dressing table which you can see in the images below. The treble wardrobe with stylised Glasgow Rose copper panels and stylised copper hinges. The dressing table with central bevelled mirror flanked by elongated uprights with capped tops and stylised Glasgow rose copper panels. Wardrobe Height 211cm high, Width 200cm wide, Depth 62cm; dressing table Height 164.5cm, Width 122cm. Circa 1900.
