

Shapland & Petter. Arts & Crafts Oak Side Table with a Hammered Copper Top

Ref: PV003465

£1,800

|            |                                                                 |
|------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|
| MAKER      | Shapland & Petter                                               |
| PERIOD     | Arts & Crafts Movement , 1910-1919                              |
| YEAR       | 1910                                                            |
| STYLE      | Arts and Crafts                                                 |
| ORIGIN     | United Kingdom                                                  |
| MATERIALS  | Oak, Copper                                                     |
| DIMENSIONS | H: 26.77 in (68 cm)   W: 21.65 in (55 cm)   D: 21.65 in (55 cm) |
| CONDITION  | Good                                                            |

About this piece

Shapland and Petter

An Arts and Crafts oak side table with a hammered copper top, the legs with applied squashed ball feet are united by three upper horizontal supports, and an unusual twin H stretcher, and all part of the design of its overall character.