About this piece

Waring and Gillows

In the style of George Walton. A rare Glasgow style Arts & Crafts oak wardrobe with a matching dressing table combined with a well balanced use of chequered inlays. They share an early type of see through finish in a silvery lime coloured wash allowing the beauty of the grain to shine through.

The wardrobe features a full length original shaped and bevelled mirrored door, and four bow fronted glass windows. Architectural tapering columns to each forward corner, the front inverts subtly towards the middle. The base includes a pair of deep drawers on a plinth base.

The dressing table has a full length original bevelled swing mirror flanked by further bevelled mirrors, with twin drawers to each side and small storage or display areas below.

Measures:

Wardrobe: Height 75" inches, width of cornice 66 inches, depth of cornice 25 inches. Dressing table height 65 1/2" inches, width 48" inches, depth 12" inches.
